Twas The Night Of Thanksgiving

C. J. Beaman

Twas the night of Thanksgiving, but I just couldn't sleep,
 I tried counting backwards, I tried counting sheep.
 The leftovers beckoned - the dark meat and white,
 But I fought off the temptation with all of my might.

I tossed and I turned with sweet anticipation,
 As the thought of a snack became infatuation.
 So I raced to the kitchen, flung open the door
 And gazed at the fridge, full of goodies galore.

I gobbled up turkey and buttered potatoes,
 Pickles and carrots, beans and tomatoes.
 I felt myself swelling so plump and so round,
 'Til all of a sudden, I rose off the ground.

I crashed through the ceiling, floating into the sky
 With a mouthful of pudding and a handful of pie.
 But I managed to yell as I soared past the trees...
 Happy eating to all! Pass the cranberries, please!

May your stuffing be tasty, may your turkey be plump,
 May your potatoes & gravy have nary a lump,
 May your yams be delicious, may your pies take the prize,
 May your Thanksgiving dinner stay off of your thighs.
